Who we are

Who is providing this notice? Valdosta Teachers’ Federal Credit Union (VTFCU)

What we do

How does Valdosta Teachers’ FCU protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Valdosta Teachers’ FCU collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- Open an account or ATM/debit card
- Apply for financing
- Make deposits or withdraw money

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? If you have a product held jointly with another person(s), each of you may opt out individually or you may opt out for each other.

Other important information

What You As A Member Can Do To Help: Protect your account numbers, plastic card numbers, PIN's (personal identification numbers) and passwords. Never keep your PIN with your card, which can provide free access to your accounts if your card is lost or stolen. Use caution when disclosing your account numbers, Social Security numbers, etc. to other persons. If someone calls you explaining the call is on behalf of the Credit Union and ask for your account number or SSN, you beware. Credit Union staff has access to that information and will not need to ask you for it. Keep your information with us current - address, phone numbers, etc. If we detect potentially fraudulent or unauthorized activity or use of an account, we may need to contact you immediately. Let us know if you have questions. Please do not hesitate to contact us - we are here to serve you!
